Progressive Policy in Adding Facilities and Making Improvements Decided On.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Baltimore, Md., November 26 .-

Leaders of development in the South met influential bankers of New York and men of large affairs at the first meeting of the new board of directors of the Seaboard Air Line Railway held here to-day. This bard inaugurates the new policy in the property to bring into close relation large sources of investment capital in New York with the opportunities of development in the States of the South traversed by the Seabaard. The make-up of the board gives larger representation to these States than ever before. They are given four times the number of directors they previously had in the old board. Then these States had two directors they previously had in the old board. Then these States had two directors Now they have eight. This does not include the directors living in Eslitimore and Washington and New York—snen whose large investment Interests in the South closely tie them Interests in the South closely tie them In all there are twelve resident directors in the South.
